PRESS RELEASE: Meet. Play. Chill. Supporting Denver Teachers on Strike

DENVER, Colorado, Feb. 13, 2019 – Meet. Play. Chill., LLC is offering its support for Denver Teachers during the strike. Meet. Play. Chill. is offering its “I Support Denver Teachers” campaign to assist teachers not receiving pay during the strike.

Started in 2014, Meet. Play. Chill. is the Denver area’s fastest growing provider of adult recreational sport leagues, tournaments, social events and activities and is co-owned by Denver locals, Mike and Erin Ross. “We believe that teachers in our community do not receive the compensation they deserve and we want to support them,” said Mike Ross.

“I Support Denver Teachers” Campaign

Meet. Play. Chill. will donate 50% of all league fees collected for any of their spring kickball, grass volleyball, soccer, dodgeball, softball or flag football registrations completed during the “I Support Denver Teachers” campaign. The campaign will be active between now and 11:59 PM on the date which the teacher strike concludes or 11:59 PM on 2/22/19, whichever occurs first. Participants must be 18 year of age or older and register with the designated promotional phrase. Visit www.MeetPlayChill.com/SupportsDenverTeachers for details.
